Extended retailer text	Stay cool and calm We know you’re a hard worker, but the only thing that should be on fire in your workspace is your productivity, not your laptop. With two large cooling fans, the Cyclone Cooling Stand prevents your laptop from overheating – and with illumination, it even looks professional too! Sweet 16”

Big laptop? No problem. With enough room for all laptops up to 16 inches, this cooling stand provides reliable and stable support for your device, no matter the size. Just like a good colleague, this cooling stand has both you and your laptop’s back!

Step up your productivity

Get your laptop at the perfect angle with the Cyclone’s 8-step adjustable positioning, offering you better ergonomics and viewpoint. And don’t worry, no matter how much you adjust it, your laptop’s not going anyway – protective rubber pads are there to prevent sliding and scratching.

Easy breezy

With plug & play ability, get your cooling stand working without breaking a sweat. With no wall power necessary, simply plug in the USB cable (conveniently storable within the stand itself!) and focus on your work.
